

first impressions

Your wedding invitations are the first detail your guests will see that prefaces your event. This is the perfect opportunity to introduce a theme and/or color palette to your guests.

- Lela New York
www.lelanewyork.com
- Zenadia Design
www.zenadiadesign.com
- Jayne's Party
(201) 568-6717
- Paper Olive
www.paperolive.com
- Revelry Invitation Studio
www.revelryinvitations.com
- Momenta Designs
www.momentaldesigns.com

Proofreading your invitations is essential in order to avoid any typos. You would hate to find an error after the invitations were already mailed out to your guests, especially with a wrong date or misspelled names!

- Jayne's Party
(201) 568-6717
- Zenadia Design
www.zenadiadesign.com
- Lela New York
www.lelanewyork.com
- Revelry Invitation Studio
www.revelryinvitations.com
- Paper Olive
www.paperolive.com
- Momenta Designs
www.momentaldesigns.com

more...

first impressions

Bring an invitation to your local post office and have it weighed before sending them out. Don't forget to also include sufficient postage on the return envelope as well.

- 19. Lela New York
www.lelanewyork.com
- 20. Revely Invitation Studio
www.revelyinvitations.com
- 21. Paper Olive
www.paperolive.com
- 22. Lela New York
www.lelanewyork.com
- 23. RSVP to me
www.rsvp-to-me.com
- 24. Holland Designs
www.invitesbyhollanddesigns.com

While you may feel overwhelmed by the many options available, a reputable designer will be happy to help you select your wedding day stationery. During the appointment, be sure to discuss budget, among other important details.

lasting memories

- 13. Paper Olive
www.paperolive.com
- 14. Revely Invitation Studio
www.revelyinvitations.com
- 15. Jayme's Party
(201) 568-6717
- 16. Lela New York
www.lelanewyork.com
- 17. Zenadia Design
www.zenadiadesign.com
- 18. Paper Olive
www.paperolive.com